

Host a group class

What it is: A fun way to learn a new skill in a group setting, while donating to a great cause. Group classes can be anything - learning to make a specific recipe or how to paint on canvas. It can take place indoors or even outdoors. If you live near the water, a paddle boarding or kayaking group class would be a unique activity!

What you may want to get geared-up: Depending on the activity, your list of needs will vary. Apart from your needed materials, think about refreshments or other things that might make the gathering feel special and fun!

How you collect donations: Nearly everyone has a smartphone, so the easiest way to collect donations for would be to post a QR code to a fundraising page you've created through JustGiving or simply to CDKL5.com/donate. Add a note with a suggested donation amount and voila!

How to promote you event: Post on social media (more than once!) and allow your followers to share the posts too. Also, talk your class up! Word of mouth is key!

Fun alternative ideas: You don't need to hire an expert to gather your friends and explore something new together! Having friends over for make your own pizzas using gourmet ingredients is easy and fun!
